

Leadership Development

"Since beginning High Potential Leadership Development in 2011, 169 leaders have completed the program. Our team has seen a 57% increase in career mobility, our leaders feel more competent developing talent on their teams, and team members are able to have deeper conversations with our executives.

"Before working with Leadership Forward, we would struggle to connect with emerging executives and have difficulty understanding our team's perspective. Now, our leaders understand their impact and are equipped to share and disseminate their knowledge in an authoritative way. Now, all team members graduate feeling capable, connected and competent."

- Juliann Brown, AVP, Development & Learning
Geisinger Human Resources

"The Leadership Forward team has had a profound impact at Geisinger. They have partnered with Geisinger for many years now to inspire, develop, challenge, and coach our leaders. As a result, we have built a stronger leadership team leading to greater outcomes and a positive impact on those we serve."

- Brion Lieberman, Chief Human Resources Officer

Transform Your Leadership. Transform Your Organization.

Leadership training designed for maximum impact and immediate results

LeadershipForward has an extraordinary reputation for creating highly customized and powerful programs for clients that help shape a variety of leaders, including high potentials, physician leaders and emerging leaders. Our approach produces leaders who are more confident, competent and clear on how they will drive greater impact and performance in their teams and organizations. By blending hands-on classroom training and one-on-one performance coaching, our curriculum accelerates a leader's ability to improve his or her competencies and raises the bar of performance company-wide.

In just one meeting a month, your team will experience the following outcomes:

- Leaders who are excited, confident and more competent
- Improved organizational engagement and execution
- Strengthened relationships and departments cross-functionally
- Clearly developed potential leaders for corporate succession
